An Overview

Dayananda Sagar Pre University College, founded by the Late Sri. R. Dayananda Sagar in 1960, is one of the premier Institutions in the Southern part of Bangalore. Dayananda Sagar P U College has been grooming the PU students to step into their chosen career for nearly five decades. This esteemed institution has been an epitome of instilling confidence and expertise to impart education with competence, compassion, concern and conscience. The founding Chairman of this institution was first and foremost a broad minded, good human being. His vision was to build an academic environment that would foster academic growth and guide generations of tomorrow.

This College is located in a 30-acre salubrious environment. The campus has avenues to pursue higher education in many streams. It is India's first Wi-Fi enabled campus. Technology utilization for education is the motto of all Institutions at DSI. The College has on line assessment centres where self assessment tests can be taken as per requirement. Smart class rooms, with advanced technical support is a special feature in DSPU College, which enhances the quality of teaching and learning process. Mentoring and monitoring of students take place continuously during the two year PUC programme. With excellent education, providing an apt environment for holistic development has been the definite aim of this institution.

The pedagogy comprises of a fine balance of traditional and modern methods. The belief is to instill students with a sense of discipline in their formative years. Teachers work with efficient quality monitoring system that facilitates learning and monitoring of the academic and co-curricular performances of the students. The class teachers help and guide the students through out the year. Those who need helping hand will be taken care by the closer monitoring and remedial classes.
